

Adaptive Leadership: Making Change Work

1-3 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 29, 2016
Wellesley Country Club
300 Wellesley Ave., Wellesley Hills, MA

Join Voice of the Faithful® for a talk and reception at the Wellesley Country Club to hear an internationally recognized expert from Harvard's Kennedy School share his ideas about leadership.

Ronald Heifetz, an internationally recognized leadership expert and Harvard Kennedy School scholar, is the original spokesman for “adaptive leadership” and the inevitable pains it brings in the pursuit of transformative birth. He is much in demand as a founder of the Harvard Kennedy School's Center for Public Leadership and a cofounder of Cambridge Leadership Associates, which consults to corporate, nonprofit, and public sectors worldwide.

Heifetz' adaptive leadership framework helps organizations take on the gradual but meaningful process of change and to thrive, even in challenging environments.

His research focuses on 1.) creating a conceptual foundation for the study of leadership; 2.) creating teaching, training, and consulting methods for leadership practice; and 3.) building adaptive capacity of organizations and societies. His book, Leadership without Easy Answers, is a classic in the field and among the 10 most assigned course books at Harvard and Duke universities. He is coauthor of the best-selling Leadership on the Line: Staying Alive through the Dangers of Leading, and coauthor of The Practice of Adaptive Leadership: Tools and Tactics for Changing Your Organization and the World.
