

Survey on the Future of the Catholic Priesthood

Sponsored by Concerned Parishioners of the [parish name]

[Dates of survey]

Keeping in mind the centrality of the Eucharist in the Roman Catholic tradition and our need for good, faithful priests, please answer the following questions by circling your response. Then place the questionnaire in the box on the table, or you may mail your response to one of the addresses below.

1. Should the laity be more involved in decision making, especially in personnel matters? Yes No

2. Should the Catholic Church welcome back to priestly ministry men who were ordained and then left and married? Yes No

3. Should the Catholic Church open ordination to the priesthood to married men? Yes No

4. Should the Catholic Church open ordination to the diaconate to women? Yes No

5. Should the Catholic Church open ordination to the priesthood to women? Yes No

Your name, phone number or email is OPTIONAL

[Names and addresses of those collecting and then reporting the survey responses]