

Survey on the Future of the Catholic Priesthood

Sponsored by Concerned Parishioners

[dates of survey]

Keeping in mind the centrality of the Eucharist in the Roman Catholic tradition and our need for good, faithful priests, please answer the following questions by circling your response

- | | | |
|--|---------|--------|
| 1. Should the laity be more involved in decision making, especially in personnel matters? | Yes 81% | No 16% |
| 2. Should the Catholic Church welcome back to priestly ministry men who were ordained and then left and married? | Yes 83% | No 16% |
| 3. Should the Catholic Church open ordination to the priesthood to married men? | Yes 80% | No 17% |
| 4. Should the Catholic Church open ordination to the diaconate to women? | Yes 76% | No 22% |
| 5. Should the Catholic Church open ordination to the priesthood to women? | Yes 63% | No 32% |