

To the Catholic Faithful of the Ft. Worth Diocese:

The Ft. Worth Voice of the Faithful will host a diocese-wide forum on March 23rd to discuss the John Jay College of Criminal Justice report of February 27, 2004. This comprehensive study, commissioned by the U.S. Catholic Bishops, is expected to describe the nature and scope of the sexual abuse crisis within the Catholic Church.

In an effort to help all of us understand the magnitude and implications of this information, VOTF wishes to provide a grace opportunity to ask questions, comment and receive comfort. Our panel will consist of a survivor of clerical sexual abuse, a social worker, two priests who are pastors in the diocese, an educator who testified at the Dallas Rudy Kos trial, and two VOTF members who are parents and active in their parishes. All interested parties are invited to attend and participate.
