Dear Ms. Ward and Mr. Post,

I have received your letter of January 14, 2005, concerning the review of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People.

I will be very interested in reading your remarks which I have not as yet done. I send to you my gratitude and appreciation for your taking the time to go over this material and sending me your reflections.

With every good wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Harry J. Flynn

Most Reverend Harry J. Flynn, D.D.
Archbishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis
